

Privacy Policy

While using the web-shop, Reinauer Mihály és Társa Bt. will handle the pieces of personal information as confidential and will not share them with any third party, except the case the third party is a subcontractor of Reinauer Mihály és Társa Bt. (E.g. ordering individual templates)

When visiting the web-shop technical information will be registered for statistic purposes. (IP address, duration of visit, etc) These pieces of information will exclusively be handed over to authorities in legitimate and reasonable cases. In order to use the services cookies must be allowed. In case you do not wish to allow cookies you can restrict them in the settings of your browser. If the cookies are restricted some elements of the usage of the service can be partly or entirely limited. The cookie is a file which is sent by the server to the browser of the costumer and the computer stores it. Personal data is not stored in the cookie.

The information registered during the ordering procedure Reinauer Mihály és Társa Bt. will exclusively use to accomplish orders. The effective accounting law defines the period for which the particular information systems will register and store the information given in the invoices of the orders together with the data given during the ordering process.

You can initiate deleting or modifying your data through our web-shop system any time as you wish.